The City of Glenn Heights recognizes and is committed to a Mission of serving the public interest, advancing the quality of life for all citizens, and preserving our small town atmosphere by embracing diversity and family values.

In recognition of African-American History Month, the Honorable Mayor Victor Pereira invites Glenn Heights students to participate in the 2nd Annual Mayor's Essay Contest by submitting original essays, passages or poems detailing "What Diversity Means in My Community."

Participation is a great way for students to reflect on the importance of diversity and learn more about civic service and local government.

Three finalists will be selected (one for elementary, one for intermediate and one for middle school) and their submissions will be recognized during an upcoming City Council meeting. Each finalist will receive special recognition and a $50.00 U.S. Savings Bond.
